THANK YOU BUT NOT FAREWELL Today we give thanks for the ministry of Alan Jenkins who is officially stepping down from Lay Licenced Ministry. Alan has served St James in so many ways over the years, especially during the interregnum. We are very grateful for all that Alan has given us and delighted that he will still continue to support as Reader Emeritus

A MASSIVE THANK YOU must go to all who have worked hard to put together the 125th Anniversary weekend events. However, special thanks must go to Carol Kidd, who has had the task of overseeing everything

WHAT A GREAT RESPONSE to our list of tasks for the Light Party on Saturday, 31st October between 5pm and 6pm. It's great so many people have been willing to do their bit towards our mission with young people. However, we are short of people to oversee some of the activities at the moment. Please do have a look at the list on the notice board and consider giving us an hour of your time to oversee an activity, all of which has been prepared beforehand. Speak to Jan, Linda or Thomas if you want more information
